August 16, 1904.

Supt. A. C. Nelson,

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir:-

I have arranged to have questions in Botany and English Literature prepared in accordance with your request of the 15th inst. I have attempted during the day to reach you by telephone, but am informed that there is no one in your office.

If you desire, I can come to Salt Lake Friday afternoon so that I could attend the meeting of the Board of Education at such time Saturday morning as you desire. I shall be in the office Wednesday afternoon or Thursday morning and should be glad to have you inform me whether it is desirable to have the meeting on Saturday. It will be inconvenient for me to come to Salt Lake earlier this week.

Yours very truly,

President.
